Best Practices for Writing a High School Narrative Rubric

Be Clear and Specific

Use precise language to describe performance levels. Avoid vague terms like "good" or "bad." Instead, specify qualities that exemplify each level.

Align with Learning Outcomes

Ensure the rubric reflects the specific skills and standards you want students to achieve, such as creativity, coherence, or language mastery.

Involve Students in the Process

Share the rubric with students before they begin writing. This transparency helps them understand goals and self-assess their work.

Keep It Manageable

Limit the number of criteria to focus on the most important elements of storytelling. Too many criteria can be overwhelming.

Use a Holistic or Analytic Approach

Decide whether your rubric will evaluate the narrative as a whole (holistic) or break down into specific components (analytic). An analytic rubric provides detailed feedback on each aspect.
