Economic Crisis and Financial Struggles

- Debt and Financial Mismanagement: By the late 18th century, France was burdened with enormous national debt, primarily due to involvement in costly wars such as the American Revolution and previous conflicts.
- Taxation System: The tax burden was unevenly distributed. The Third Estate (commoners) bore most of the taxes, while the First Estate (clergy) and Second Estate (nobility) enjoyed privileges and exemptions.
- Food Shortages and Famine: Poor harvests in the late 1780s led to bread shortages, skyrocketing prices, and widespread hunger among the common populace.
- Economic Decline: Trade deficits, inflation, and unemployment further exacerbated public discontent.

Social Structure and Inequality

- Estates-General System: France's society was divided into three estates:
 - First Estate: Clergy (approximately 0.5% of the population)
 - Second Estate: Nobility (around 1.5%)
 - Third Estate: Commoners, including peasants, artisans, bourgeoisie (about 98%)
- Privileges of the Nobility and Clergy: These groups enjoyed tax exemptions, political privileges, and control over land and resources.
- Discontent Among the Third Estate: The bourgeoisie (wealthy middle class), urban workers, and peasants felt increasingly marginalized and unfairly treated.

Enlightenment Ideas and Intellectual Climate

- Rise of Enlightenment Thought: Philosophers like Voltaire, Rousseau, Montesquieu, and Diderot challenged traditional authority, advocating reason, liberty, and equality.

Formation of the National Assembly

- June 17, 1789: The Third Estate proclaimed itself the National Assembly, asserting it represented the people of France.
